GEN. PILLOW has returned to his home near Columbia, Tenn.

CHIEF JUSTICE BULLITT of Kentucky, is to be tried on the charge of conspiracy against the Government.

No military passes will hereafter be required of citizens traveling over the Louisville and Nashville Railroad.

THERE is a Pennsylvania soldier who has lost both arms, both legs, and one eye, and remains alive to tell the story.

THE news of the opening of recruiting offices for Mexico in New York and Washington, created immense sensation in Paris. The General impression is that Napoleon will not stand it.

BARNUM offers five hundred dollars for the dress in which Jeff. Davis was captured, and two Chicago gentlemen are pleading to be allowed to add the same garment to the attractiveness of the great North-Western Fair.

THE Louisville Democrat learns that the Secretary of War will, in the course of ten or twelve days, appoint commissioners to fix the value of slaves who have enlisted or been drafted into the United States armies from the State of Kentucky.

A LETTER from City Point says that trains are running from Danville, laden with the spoils taken, including large quantities of tobacco and paper in the original English packages just as received after running the blockade.

MRS. MARY CONNER, of Franklin township, Westmoreland county, Pa., died recently at the advanced age of one hundred and four years and twenty-five days, leaving three hundred and nineteen descendants, children, grand children and great grand-children.

A DISPATCH from New York, dated May 21st, says that if the white citizens of South Carolina don't act promptly and repeal all the State laws antagonistic to the United States, it is thought the State will be entirely given over to the negroes, who will form a new constitution.

KENTUCKY is the only State in the Union where slavery is unaffected by the Emancipation Proclamation. The Legislature refused to accept the compensated emancipation offered by President Lincoln to the border States and have also rejected the Constitutional amendment. Thus Kentucky stands alone.

FROM MONTGOMERY, ALA.—A gentleman from Montgomery informs the Macon Telegraph that a very favorable condition of affairs exists in that city. The principal portion of the Union forces have been withdrawn, leaving a garrison of only two thousand. The best order has been preserved, thus far, the military cordially supporting the local civil authorities. There was a large amount of cotton and tobacco stored privately in the city, which has enabled quite a brisk trade to be opened, and money is reported comparatively plenty. The steamers are running regularly on the river.

RAILROADS IN THE SOUTH.—The New York Herald says: The Danville Railroad is being run by the company from that point through Greensboro, Salisbury and Charlotte to Columbia, S. C., and the United States government is rebuilding that part of the line between Danville and Richmond, and the Fredericksburg and Alexandria road to Washington.—General Schofield has rebuilt and is now running the North Carolina road from Newbern through Raleigh to Greensboro. General Gillmore is running the South Carolina Railroad westward from Charleston to Midway, and eastward from Augusta to Aiken, leaving only about forty-five miles to be repaired. This will be finished in a fortnight, thus completing the line of communication to Columbia and Atlanta, Ga. The line from Atlanta to Chattanooga will be finished by June 1, and the link between Columbus and Montgomery will be finished by the same time. The Gulf Railroad from Savannah westward is intact. Large numbers of laborers are already at work on the Mobile and Ohio road.

From the Richmond papers we gather the annexed news: Citizens who have given their parole, or taken the oath of allegiance, are permitted to go North to make necessary arrangements for engaging once more in business. Otherwise they cannot receive passes. Residents of Richmond are held strictly responsible for the cleanliness and good order of their premises, including the sidewalks or pavements in front of their dwellings or business locality. The Federal authorities are offering every inducement and facility for the re-opening of the public schools. Thousands of people who left Richmond on the approach of the Federal Army of occupation have returned. Assistance is being furnished for the present to the unemployed poor.

A MURDERER ARRESTED.—A few weeks since we noticed the murder, near Goldsboro, N. C., of Capt. McGuire, of the 17th New York Volunteers. The murderer, Col. Hart, of the 6th Georgia Cavalry, was arrested a few days since at Augusta, Georgia, and is now incarcerated in the jail at Savannah. From the evidence taken at the Coroner's Inquest, held on the body of Capt. McGuire, it appears that the act was willful.—Savannah Herald.

CINCINNATI, May 23, 1865.—Four hundred rebel prisoners at Indianapolis were released yesterday after taking the oath of allegiance. Four hundred more will be discharged to-day.
